

Philippians Chapter Two

Expanded Translation

- 1. Therefore, since there is encouragement in Christ, since there is comfort from His love, since there is fellowship with the Spirit, since there are tender affections & resultant mercy & grace application.
- 2. Then bring to completion in your life the joy that I possess, that you might be thinking the same thing, having the same love (occupation with Christ), united in soul rapport, concentrating on the same objective.
- 3. Do nothing motivated by contentiousness nor ambitious pride, but by means of humility and grace orientation consider each other better than yourselves
- 4. Everyone of you should not keep looking out for his own personal interests only, but also each one should keep looking out for the interests of others.
